

Easts Frequently Asked Questions

Can I attend Saturday's Rugby Games?

In line with the NSW Public Health Order, Easts Rugby Club is open to a limited number of patrons. All attendees must purchase online tickets to pre-register their attendance online. Link on website.

Easts Members must also pre-register their attendance using the link sent in weekly email communications.

General Admission customers may purchase tickets to Saturday Game Days online through the link on the website.

All attendees are asked to observe the 1.5m social distancing rule throughout the day, even when ordering food and beverages, and in the restrooms. If leaving the ground and intending to return you will receive a stamp on exiting. Please enter back through the area to which you entered from..

What social distancing and bio-security measures will be in place?

Strict social distancing restrictions will be in place.

Patrons will have their temperature checked on arrival using hand held thermometers.

In line with the current NSW Health Order, all patrons, Members and guests attending the Rugby must register their name and contact details with the Club. This is to adhere to the Track & Trace Policy.

Hand sanitizer dispensers will be placed at key guest and employee entrances and contact areas such as food and beverage outlets, function spaces and facilities (i.e. restrooms).

Signage will be displayed throughout the venue to inform and enforce health, good hygiene and physical distancing practices.

We ask that diners respect staff and any COVID-Safe guidelines in place on the day.

To reduce hand-to-hand contact, Easts will be operating cashless retail outlets.

Patron capacity for the venue is 50 patrons for each dining area along with the one person per 4 square metre rule.
